Pooled Funds at the Service of the UN Development System Reform

United Nations (UN) pooled financing is key to advancing UN system reform and achieving the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. UN pooled financing offers a flexible, collaborative and efficient way to support Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) financing and to reach those furthest behind.

A shift in funding is at the heart of UN reform. To enhance the UN’s ability to deliver high-quality development support, at scale, to Member States, the UN Secretary-General has established, among other objectives, a target to double the contributions to UN inter-agency pooled funds from 8% up to 16% of the total UNDS non-core funding.

The UN Multi-Partner Trust Fund (MPTF) Office has an established track record of developing well-designed and professionally managed UN pooled funds.

“Pooled funding mechanisms have a strong track-record in strengthening coherence and coordination, broadening the contributor base, improving risk management and leverage, and provide better incentives for collaboration within the UNDS or across pillars in relevant contexts”

António Guterres, UN Secretary General (December 2017 report on repositioning the UNDS)

The UN Multi-Partner Trust Fund Office

The MPTF Office is the UN hub on pooled financing. Hosted by the UN Development Programme (UNDP), it provides fund design, fund administration, and other professional services to UN entities, national governments and non-governmental partners.

For 15 years and with a cumulative portfolio of over US$10.8 billion, the MPTF Office has supported the joint action of UN entities, governments, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and the private sector in 113 countries.

The MPTF Office provides integrated services throughout the life cycle of its pooled funds, from their inception to their closure. These services are conducted separately from the Pooled Fund management and implementation roles, ensuring a neutral and professionally dedicated trustee function firewall from all UN implementing entities, UNDP included.

The MPTF Office has accumulated its experience performing these core functions to expand the pooled fund-related services it offers and to become the UN center of expertise on pooled funding instruments.

MPTF Office operations are a touchstone for transparency. Its Gateway (mptf.undp.org) reports on fund administration in real time and makes information universally available online.

Indicated in its name, the work of the MPTF Office is about multi-partner collaboration. It draws an extensive network of public and private contributors and UN as well as non-UN implementing partners into financing platforms. Its breadth of expertise in facilitating partners working seamlessly together enables collective outcomes that traverse the 2030 Agenda.
The MPTF Office administers a variety of funds that support UN action on a range of humanitarian, transitional, development and climate change related challenges. For example:

The MPTF Office administers a variety of funds that support UN action on a range of humanitarian, transitional, development and climate change related challenges. For example:

- The Peacebuilding Fund supports countries emerging from conflict. It provisions activities that contribute to post-conflict stabilization and to building peaceful and inclusive societies.

- The Spotlight Initiative is a global, multi-year partnership between the European Union and the UN to eliminate all forms of violence against women and girls.

- The Lion's Share Trust Fund supports animal welfare globally, by encouraging advertisers to contribute 0.5% of their animal-featured media spend to conservation and animal protection projects.

- The Joint SDG Fund supports UN Country Teams accelerate SDG achievement through strategic investments for integrated policy and financing.

- The Central African Forest Initiative (CAFI) is a joint undertaking to slow down and halt deforestation and forest degradation in Central Africa.

- The Colombia Post Conflict Trust Fund supports the efforts of the Government, the international donor community and the UN to achieve concrete results in the consolidation of peace.
For 15 years, MPTF Office-administered funds have helped 113 countries address their development, humanitarian, and peace and security challenges. As development contexts have substantially changed and countries’ priorities have evolved, the MPTF Office has evolved with them. It is providing new tools to encourage greater private sector engagement and supporting project implementation by governments and NGOs. In 2019, it will revamp its reporting tools with the launch of the 2030 Gateway. The MPTF Office’s ultimate goal is to continue providing pooled funding services that improve collaboration with – and within– the UN system towards SDGs.
