In this case, costs for such tasks will be decided in advance and with the approval of the Steering Committee be charged to the Joint Programme as direct costs.

and a Separate Ledger Account

1. The Administrative Agent will make disbursements from the Joint Programme Account in accordance with instructions from the Steering Committee, in line with the Joint Programme Document, as amended in writing from time to time by the Steering Committee. The disbursement to the Participating UN Organizations will consist of direct and indirect costs as set out in the Joint Programme budget.
2. Each Participating UN Organization will establish a separate ledger account under its financial regulations and rules for the receipt and administration of the funds disbursed to it from the Joint Programme Account. That separate ledger account will be subject exclusively to the internal and external auditing procedures laid down in the financial regulations, rules, directives and procedures applicable to the Participating UN Organization.⁴

Section III Implementation of the Joint Programme

1. The implementation of the programmatic activities which the Donor assists in financing under this Arrangement will be the responsibility of the Participating UN Organizations and will be carried out by each Participating UN Organization in accordance with its own applicable regulations, rules, policies and procedures including relating to procurement. The Donor will not be directly responsible or liable for the activities of any person employed by the Participating UN Organizations or the Administrative Agent as a result of this Arrangement.

5. The Participating UN Organizations will not make any commitments above the budgeted amounts in Joint Programme Document, as amended from time to time by the Steering Committee.

⁴ Where the Administrative Agent is also a Participating UN Organization, it will need to open its own separate ledger account and transfer funds from the Joint Programme Account to its separate ledger account.

6. If unforeseen expenditures arise, the Steering Committee will submit, through the Administrative Agent, a supplementary budget to the Donor showing the further financing that will be necessary. If no such further financing is available, the activities to be carried out under the Joint Programme Document may be reduced or, if necessary, terminated by the Participating UN Organizations. In no event will the Participating UN Organizations assume any liability in excess of the funds transferred from the Joint Programme Account.

7. The Donor reserves the right to discontinue future contributions if reporting obligations are not met as set forth in this Arrangement; or if there are substantial deviations from agreed plans and budgets. If it is agreed among the Donor, the Administrative Agent and the concerned Participating UN Organization under the Arrangement that there is evidence of improper use of funds, the Participating UN Organization will use their best efforts, consistent with their regulations, rules, policies and procedures to recover any funds misused. The Participating UN Organization will, in consultation with the Steering Committee and the Administrative Agent, credit any funds so recovered to the Joint Programme Account or agree with the Steering Committee to use these funds for a purpose mutually agreed upon.
