

Kyrgyzstan, Bi-annual (April 2019) Project Review and Outcome Harvesting ,
3-4 April 2019

S/N o	Outcomes Harvested During the Session	Location	Actors	Date	Comments
UNPBF
May 2019
Batken
1	Two teachers Kolsunai Rajabova from Isfana and Tolugai Nazarova a teacher from the village school in Batken district participants of the training on tolerance, conflict prevention and democracy for the first time and upon their own initiative organised and facilitated the training on tolerance for 50 schoolchildren in Batken, and the same training for 20 students in Isfana.	Batken, Isfana	Individual	April 2019
2	Young participants of the youth camp organised by Saferworld in March and recommended by the local authorities as the most vulnerable young people (from the labour migrants families) after the participation at the camp organised and facilitated training on tolerance for 30 students of vocational courses in Kyzyl-Kiya town.	Kyzyl-Kiya	Community	April 2019
3	Young participants of the youth camp organised by Saferworld in March initiated and organised motivation meetings with the prominent sportsman Akjol Sulaimanke uulu for the residents of Kan and Ravat villages in Batken province.	Kan and Ravat villages	Community	April 2019
Jalal-Abad
4	Two female schoolchildren from medrese (religious school) Raihona Mamasalieva and Akida Raimjanova after participation in youth camp for the first time participated in the youth debates, and developed their own initiative addressing the intolerance and tensions between secular and religious part of the communities in Suzak.	Suzak village	Individual	May 2019
5	As the result of participation at the youth camp, and especially meeting with prominent businessmen in March two young females Aidai Kadyeralieva and Gulayim Kanybekova decided to develop their own business initiative and invite unemployed young women. At the moment they are looking for funds to implement their idea. Before they were ignorant of root causes of insecurity. After the camp they understood that they need to strengthen capacity of women by providing opportunities for young females.	Jalal-Abad city	Individual	May 2019
Osh
6	Gulbahor Amir Khanova teacher from Shark village participant of the training on tolerance, democracy and conflict prevention initiated and facilitated training to share her knowledge and skills for her colleagues at school.	Shark	Individual	April 2019

7	Akmaral Ashiralieva young female participant of the “Jash Araket” project on her own initiative and for the first time organised and facilitated training on tolerance for the teachers of Faculty of International relations (languages) of the Osh State University.	Osh	Individual	April 2019
8	Baizhigit Jaichibekov a young participant of the “Jash Araket” project initiated and organised contest on reading books and book crossing among schoolchildren of 7 municipalities of Nookat district to promote self-development and importance of reading for learning and strengthening capacity. It was unplanned activity, that he decided to initiate after the participation at the motivation meeting at the camp with Emil Umetaliev prominent businessman.	Nookat District	Individual	May 2019
9	Meerim Sulaimanova young female participant of the project from Uzgen town initiated and opened the book club in Uzgen where residents of the town do book sharing and book crossing. She fundraised for instalment of the book shelves in public places. After the participation in motivation meetings with prominent businessmen during the youth camp she learned that books are the best contributors to the development of people, therefore she decided to launch her own mini-project.	Uzgen	Individual	May 2019
Chui province
10	Malik Laichnov participant of the project from Tokmok town after participation in youth camp in March applied to the Youth Committee under the Mayor’s office. At present time he is an active member of the Youth Committee, and advocates for more youth inclusion.	Tokmok	Individual	May 2019