PART I: OVERALL PROJECT PROGRESS

NOTES FOR COMPLETING THE REPORT:

- Avoid acronyms and UN jargon, use general /common language.
- Report on what has been achieved in the reporting period, not what the project aims to do.
- Be as concrete as possible. Avoid theoretical, vague or conceptual discourse.
- Ensure the analysis and project progress assessment is gender and age sensitive.
- If relevant, please include any COVID-19 related considerations, adjustments and results and respond to section IV. (This section is optional)

Briefly outline the status of the project in terms of implementation cycle, including whether preliminary/preparatory activities have been completed (i.e. contracting of partners, staff recruitment, etc.)

Please limit your response to 1500 characters including spaces.

The project's preparatory activities have been completed to ensure cohesiveness and jointness of further project implementation phase.

The RUNOs established a joint working group (JWG) to regularly discuss the project's trajectory, status, ways forward, risks, etc. Series of consultations of the JWG with national and international counterparts yielded in development of the detailed two-year AWP that is responsive to the needs of multiple stakeholders and in line with Kyrgyz Jarany concept. Two-year AWP was presented and agreed at the JSC on May 17, 2022.

The RUNOs established M&E and Communication groups, which developed joint plans to guide the project in the respective areas during implementation. With facilitation of the Peace Nexus, a joint M&E plan completed through series of workshops with participation of multiple stakeholders. Since the joint M&E plan has been agreed with national stakeholders, the project will launch base-line survey by taking into account the indicators of the baseline survey planned under the Kyrgyz Jarany Action Plan.

The project's scoping missions to target locations identified entry points for collaborative programming with regards to U-Report, awareness raising activities, human rights and diversity and identified youth-led organizations, young activists and people with disabilities to engage for project activities.

Summarize the main structural, institutional or societal level change the project has contributed to. This is not anecdotal evidence or a list of individual outputs, but a description of progress made toward the main purpose of the project

FOR PROJECTS WITHIN SIX MONTHS OF COMPLETION ONLY; (1500 character limit)

Not applicable at this stage

PART II: RESULT PROGRESS BY PROJECT OUTCOME

Describe overall progress under each Outcome made during the reporting period (for June reports: January-June; for November reports: January-November; for final reports: full project duration). Do not list individual activities. If the project is starting to make/has made a difference at the outcome level, provide specific evidence for the progress (quantitative and qualitative) and explain how it impacts the broader political and peacebuilding context.

- "On track" refers to the timely completion of outputs as indicated in the workplan.
- "On track with peacebuilding results" refers to higher-level changes in the conflict or peace factors that the project is meant to contribute to. These effects are more likely in mature projects than in newer ones.

Progress summary

Please limit your response to 3000 characters including spaces.

Output 1:

The project conducted series of consultations with national counterparts on creating a whole-of-government I4P at all levels by combining various IMCMs aimed at social cohesion such as Kyrgyz Jarany, State Concept on Religious Affairs, Youth Development Concept, PVE, Concept on Spiritual and Moral Development of the Person, President's Decree on National Tradition. Agreements reached to sustain LSGs' role within the entire I4P by revising respective legal framework.

Scoping mission to Balykchy and Tokmok identified entry points for collaborative programming. Parents and siblings bring young children to child development centres, providing opportunity to identify interested teenagers for U-report and youth-led peacebuilding and to conduct sessions on peace, tolerance and diversity. Participatory local governance regulations approved by government, providing framework for youth participation nationwide with specific focus on peacebuilding in seven project locations.

In targeted communities 100 young activists and people with disabilities identified and trained on civic identity, human rights, diversity and participative decision-making.

Output 2:

Consultations are continued with the Situation Centre of the Presidential Administration, the Ministry of Culture and the State Commission on Religious Affairs to find a common understanding on the structure and the content of the future EWER system. Preliminary results are that Situational Centre will serve as a central level body for aggregating data from across development sectors and synthesizing it for strategic decision-making for preventing the negative trends, tendencies.

The project supported in the launch of 6 additional Public Reception Centers (PRCs) under the Ministry of Culture in Bishkek (4), Naryn (1) and Talas (1) cities by purchasing basic furniture and computer equipment.

U-report recognised as useful online tool for engaging with youth. It was agreed that Ministry of Culture will lead first actions following first social cohesion U-report poll in seven locations. U-Report will also support baseline and endline survey.

Output 3:

Project trained 80 representatives of national and regional level media and journalists, in development and approval of Government-led Communication and Media Plans aimed at developing narratives, media products and dissemination for raising public awareness on the values of civic identity, inclusion, tolerance.

Youth-led organisation in peacebuilding and social cohesion work identified to roll out of youth-led peacebuilding initiatives. Agreements with Ministry of Education reached to develop training on a) peacebuilding in child development centres b) multilingual education for child development centre staff and parents.

In target communities 100 members of Women's Councils under local authorities trained on civic identity, human rights, diversity, and participative decision-making.

Indicate any additional analysis on how Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment and/or Youth Inclusion and Responsiveness has been ensured under this Outcome

Please limit your response to 1500 characters including spaces.

Both joint AWP and M&E plans developed through gender-sensitivity angles. Training of 100 women councillors was entirely aimed at Women's Empowerment and provided them with the necessary skills and tools to participate effectively in decision-making processes. Youth (approximately 60% girls) will be recruited as U-reporters to scan the environment, report on trust and cohesion and mobilised to participate in local governance and/or community-led solutions for improving social cohesion.

PART III: Cross-Cutting Issues

Please indicate any significant project-related events anticipated in the next six months, i.e. national dialogues, youth congresses, film screenings, etc. *

Please limit your response to 3000 characters including spaces.

The project plans to provide technical support in developing recommendations aimed at building I4P, decentralizing conflict prevention functions to local self-governments and strengthening cohesive action planning of the member-institutions of Kyrgyz Jarany IMCM. The project plans to launch activities aimed at structuring the methodology of EWER system within the Ministry of Culture.

The project will conduct missions to five locations in the south with youth-led implementing partner. The objective is to introduce the project, promote the role of youth in peacebuilding, clarify the linkages between the different areas of work and identify and mobilise youth participants. Training of U-reporters, youth, LSGs, staff of early childhood development centres and parents on peace, tolerance and diversity will start in August.

The project plans to continue training for youth and women councillors in the remaining three target communities on human rights and non-discrimination, civic identity and diversity, and participation in decision-making processes. Support for the formation/activation of dialogue platforms at the local government level is also planned. Support for government and civil society efforts to promote equality legislation is planned to be organised.

In a few sentences, explain whether the project has had a positive human impact. May include anecdotal stories about the project's positive effect on the people's lives. Include direct quotes where possible or weblinks to strategic communications pieces.

The Government of the Kyrgyz Republic approved and signed the Decree on participatory local governance (youth and child friendly local governance). All 33 cities of the Kyrgyz Republic will participate in this initiative. There are a set of 26 indicators related to youth and child from which the government can assess the participatory nature of local governance. Leveraging the opportunity to support this initiative within this project and nationwide, UNICEF will ensure that all stakeholders in all 33 cities are oriented on peace, tolerance and diversity. As part of this National Youth Coordinating Council under Ministry of Culture, Information, Sport and Youth Policy will launch the nationwide participatory local governance initiative and establish a secretariat under the Ministry that will manage Youth Coordinating Councils working with the donor community, private sector, youth non-governmental organisations and universities as part of promoting youth participation in decision-making and bringing peacebuilding issues to a wider audience.
