Ilaria Carnevali

Deputy Executive Coordinator of the UN Multi-Partner Trust Fund Office

Ilaria Carnevali (Italy) is the Deputy Executive Coordinator of the UN Multi-Partner Trust Fund Office (MPTF Office), a specialized unit within UNDP that provides fund design and fund administration services to the UN system and national governments.

With over 20 years of experience in the UN System in addition to an extensive prior private sector career, mostly in international banking with focus on emerging economies and loan syndications, Ilaria's programme management experience and work in key thematic areas include governance, children's rights, gender equality, and crisis prevention and recovery.

Prior to joining the MPTF Office, Ilaria served as UNICEF Representative a.i. and Deputy Representative in Niger. Previously she had worked in Cabo Verde (UNDP, UNFPA and UNICEF Joint Office), Mozambique (as UNDP Deputy Country Director), Mauritania (UNDP Deputy Resident Representative) and in Ukraine (UNDP's Head of Governance Programmes). She has also worked in UNIFEM Africa and UNDP's Bureau for Crisis Prevention and Recovery.

She holds an Advanced Degree (Laurea) in Business Administration from Bocconi University (Italy) and a Master of Arts in international Relations from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs from Syracuse University (USA), with concentration in International Economic Policy and Latin America.
