

- Youth participants during community youth sports day during the International Day of Peace, Sports contest organized under peace building and governance
- Community members listening to a speech from their local leader during the community wide dialogue forum to commemorate the international day of peace.

- Participants at the gender and sensitivity analysis workshop
- Community leaders at a round table discussion during the gender and sensitivity analysis workshop

- Participants sharing insights during the community mapping and action planning session

- Community leadership discussions on the inclusion of youth and gender sensitivity in program implementation workshop

- Community leadership discussions on the inclusion of youth and gender sensitivity in program implementation workshop