Because of delayed elections successfully concluded only in mid-2022, and the need for the new Government to subsequently define its priorities and appoint key positions, a meaningful engagement with Government was only possible in quarter 4 of 2022. Between the end of 2022 until the end of this project in May 2023, the PBF Secretariat established a partnership with the new leadership of the Ministry of Interior, Federal Affairs & Reconciliation (MOIFAR) and agreed on the details of the new PBF Secretariat project "Support and capacity development for joint analysis, design, and coordination of PBF interventions in Somalia". The new project was approved mid-2023 and started shortly after the end of this project. It will support the PBF portfolio in Somalia until September 2025, covering the time until the end of the PBF eligibility period in July 2025 and allowing time for final portfolio evaluation. As part of this new partnership, it was agreed to place a PBF-supported Reconciliation and Peacebuilding Advisor in MOIFAR who will provide strategic alignment, coordinate peacebuilding initiatives within government institutions, enhance cooperation between MOIFAR, the UN system in Somalia, PBF, international partners and civil society, and support the establishment of a steering mechanism to promote national ownership, government leadership and steering of PBF interventions. The position will also provide technical advice to MOIFAR and the UN system to mobilize technical and financial support from and facilitate partnerships with the UN system and beyond to support conflict-sensitive peacebuilding and reconciliation interventions. The PBF Secretariat also supported engagement with the Ministry of Planning and Ministry of Women Affairs and Human Rights Development to ensure the approval of new projects.

The project was meant to end in May 2022. While the PBF Coordinator was recruited early 2022, the presidential elections delayed significantly, causing delays for the formation of a new government and appointments of key officials in the Ministry of Interior, Federal Affairs & Reconciliation (MOIFAR), the counterpart institution for the PBF portfolio in Somalia. For MOIFAR to subsequently define its priorities and discuss the partnership with PBF and the related design of a follow-on PBF Secretariat project required another extension of this project until 31st May 2023. Through this extension, the position of the PBF Coordinator was maintained, enabling the transition to the new secretariat project based on emerging government priorities. The Conflict Analysis Officer (seconded by The Netherlands) and M&E Specialist took up other assignments in 2022. The Youth, Peace and Security Officer (seconded by Sweden), who supported the Secretariat and Integrated Office (IO) more broadly, completed his two-year deployment early 2023. New staff to support the PBF Coordinator in the PBF Secretariat will be recruited as part of the new PBF secretariat project that will start in July 2023, based on a new organigram agreed and funded. A follow-on PBF Secretariat project over USD 2 Million has already been agreed with the new leadership of MOIFAR and approved by PBF. A strategic direction to guide PBF's investments in Somalia until the end of the PBF eligibility period in July 2025 remains to be agreed as part of the new project.

Describe overall progress under each Outcome made during the reporting period (for June reports: January-June; for November reports: January-November; for final reports: full project duration). Do not list individual activities. If the project is starting to make/has made a difference at the outcome level, provide specific evidence for the progress (quantitative and qualitative) and explain how it impacts the broader political and peacebuilding context.

Between 2018 and the end of the project in May 2023, the PBF portfolio, facilitated/ managed by the Secretariat, promoted synergies between peacebuilding interventions implemented by AFPs and the political work of UNSOM/Good Offices of the SRSG. This helped unblocking political impasses through a combination of projects that played a critical role in supporting four main programmatic areas:

1) Peaceful elections by supporting alternative dispute resolution modalities (e.g., mediation at the polling locations) and building capacities to plan electoral security and prevent electoral violence, while introducing an approach for security forces to protect women, which can be applied to future elections. Two projects in the portfolio were implemented by the Integrated Electoral Support Group (IESG), a collaboration between UNDP and UNSOM, that also worked in partnership with UNOPS.

2) Political dialogue/ National Consultative Council (NCC) meetings between the Federal Government of Somalia (FGS) and Federal Member States (FMS) before and after the elections that helped solving the political impasse over presidential elections and facilitated agreements on joint priorities for the new Government (through the UNDP-UNSOM project on political transition). Overall, the PBF made a comprehensive contribution to a peaceful transfer of power, as demonstrated in the overall acceptance of the 2022 election results, and political transition as evidenced by various NCC communiques summarizing important agreements between the FGS and FMS for political transition. Supporting political dialogue helped open spaces for the UN to engage with the new Government on priorities shared by the international community/ UN.

3) Women, Peace and Security: The Joint Programme on Women, Peace and Protection (WPP) promoted women's participation in peacebuilding, particularly in decision-making and leadership, and sustaining peace at national and community level. Capacities of FGS and FMS women affairs ministries and women-led CSOs were built on issues such as the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda and the localization of the National Action Plan (NAP) on WPS. It also supported the establishment of Women Peace Networks and Women Resource Centres. Other projects in this area enhanced participation and safety of women activists and journalists and supported women-led grassroots peacebuilding.

4) Youth, Peace and Security: The project portfolio fostered community-based reintegration for youth formerly associated with al-Shabaab, supported youth participation in transforming unequal power sharing structures between communities, youth-led peace initiatives with an emphasis on the management of scarce land and access to livelihood.

Since 2018, when this PBF Secretariat project started, 18 projects were approved over a total amount of USD 42,084,750. As an additional overall result of this project, the SG approved a 5-year eligibility renewal for Somalia in July 2020, focusing on national reconciliation, rule of law, democratic governance, security sector reform with strong overall emphasis on Women, Peace and Security. This was the result of virtual consultations reaching approximately 400 people in the general public and more than 70 key stakeholders from government, civil society and the international community. 11 implementing agencies (FAO, IOM, UNDP, UNICEF, UNHCR, UNFPA, UNHABITAT, UNOPS, UNICEF, UN Women, UNSOM) and 4 CSOs (Life and Peace Institute, Saferworld, International Rescue Committee, ACTED) were or are recipients of PBF funds, supported by this project. Since funding its first project in 2009, the PBF approved USD 71.2 million in Somalia.

Indicate any additional analysis on how Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment and/or Youth Inclusion and Responsiveness has been ensured by the project to date [*]

Please limit your response to 3000 characters

In addition to Women, Peace and Security (WPS) identified as a key cross-cutting theme as part of Somalia's PBF eligibility request, the Secretariat advocated for the introduction of youth, peace and security (YPS) as another critical focus that should be considered in the future when designing PBF-funded peacebuilding interventions. 70% of the Somali population is 'youth' and key priorities around social contract, constitutional review, governance and security are deeply inter-related with traditional lines of exclusion of youth. The suggested future WPS/ YPS focus of the portfolio is already reflected by suggesting the creation of a PBF Gender, Youth and Inclusion Officer position as part of the new PBF Secretariat project.

The PBF Secretariat developed a close collaboration with the Somalia Joint Fund (SJF) under the Integrated Office in order to explore synergies between both funds. An example for this collaboration is the Women, Peace and Protection Programme that has attracted additional funds from Sweden and Germany that are being channeled through the SJF, using the same reporting requirements and allowing the upscaling of catalytic PBF funding. The PBF Secretariat supported the development and approval process of the "Somalia Women and Youth Peace Project" to be implemented by International Rescue Committee for $1.5 million over 18 months.

For 18 projects approved and implemented since 2018, the PBF Secretariat provided effective coordination, monitoring, reporting, evaluation, and communication on achievements. To strengthen national ownership and steering of the PBF portfolio, the PBF Secretariat established a partnership with MoIFAR to serve as the Government's main counterpart for PBF.

The PBF Secretariat's management of the PBF portfolio enabled the financing and accompanied the implementation of projects that contributed to three out of the following four priorities identified during the process of renewing PBF eligibility for Somalia (with strong overall emphasis on Women, Peace and Security): National reconciliation; rule of law; democratic governance.

Below are some recent examples of project interventions that were supported by the PBF Secretariat Project:

Reconciliation and rule of law: The IOM-UNICEF partnership led to an improvement in social and psychosocial indicators for both, youth formerly associated with al-Shabaab and marginalized community youth. This was echoed by community members reporting positive contributions of youth to the community well-being and social cohesion. In addition, the programme contributed to a growing level of confidence in community-based reintegration among government agencies.

Reconciliation, rule of law, democratic governance: The Women, Peace and Protection Programme, jointly implemented by UNDP and UN Women supported the Ministry of Women at the Federal and Federal Member States in the ongoing implementation of a National Action Plan (NAP) on UNSCR 1325 and the development and implementation of related Local Action Plans (LAP) in each Federal Member State. This has provided a platform to establish one-stop treatment centres for SGBV survivors. 229 SGBV survivors were already assisted in cities where access was previously limited or non-existent. During focus group discussions women from local communities described these centres as a "safe haven" for survivors to seek much-needed services.

Reconciliation: The IOM-FAO "Promoting Inclusive Action in Peacebuilding (PIAP)" Initiative facilitated collaborative efforts by young people in the Marka district to address inter-communal and inter-clan tensions surrounding water management. Through inclusive dialogue platforms and participatory processes, the project has helped to foster trust, cooperation, and understanding among the two main villages of Shamabod and Buufow. The initiative has strengthened community resilience by addressing some of the root causes of resource-based conflicts.

Rule of law and democratic governance: Saferworld's introduction of the Violence Observatory System (VOS) improved the GBV response landscape. Access to GBV support services increased to 80%, up from 27.5% in the baseline assessment. Advocacy efforts led to the establishment of a gender office in Jubaland's Ministry of Justice.

Reconciliation and democratic governance: Political dialogue/ NCC meetings between the FGS and FMS facilitated agreements on joint priorities for the new Government through the UNDP-UNSOM project on political transition that facilitated women's engagement with the National Consultative Council (NCC), supporting them to develop strategies towards influencing the agenda and outcomes of the NCC (as part of Somalia's peace and state-building process), advocating for a visible role in the implementation of NCC decisions and holding political leaders to account.

By May 2023, there was no notable contribution to the priority of security sector reform.

If yes, please provide sources or references (including links) as evidence of peacebuilding results, or submit them as additional attachments.

Evidence may be quantitative or qualitative but needs to demonstrate progress against outcome indicators in the project results framework. Sources may include project surveys (such as perception surveys), monitoring reports, government documents, or other knowledge products that have been developed by the project.

1) MOGADISHU (Somali guardian: https://somaliguardian.com/news/somalia-news/somalias-new-president-chairs-first-national-consultative-council-meeting/) – Somalia's new President Hassan Sheikh Mohamud on Saturday chaired his first meeting of the National Consultative Council (NCC) in an effort aimed at further improving cooperation with regional states and reconciliation, his office said. 2) Office of the President, Official Communique, National Consultative Council Meeting (https://villasomalia.gov.so/en/official-communique-national-consultative-council-meeting/): The National Consultative Meeting reached agreements on the completion of the state-building structure.

Because of this, the COVID19 pandemic, ongoing insecurity and a challenging electoral cycle pre-occupying government counterpart, the preparation of the Strategic Results Framework for the PBF and the approval of the new PBF Secretariat project delayed.

1.2	Continued growth of PBF portfolio in Somalia	47 million USD	60 million USD	As of December 2022, the PBF had approved USD 71.2 million in Somalia. Since 2018, when this PBF Secretariat project started, 18 projects were approved over a total amount of USD 42,084,750. As an additional overall result of this project, the SG approved a 5-year eligibility renewal for Somalia in July2020. Target of 60 million was exceeded with 71.2 million.	N/A

| 1.3 | Reporting for all PBF-funded projects as per established reporting schedule | N/A | 90% within seven days of deadline | Submission of timely project reports has improved overall since 2018. | A number of project evaluations were delayed in 2021and 2022 due to Covid-19 and difficulties to implement evaluations on the ground with ongoing insecurity, electoral dynamics and Government counterparts participating less in project steering and evaluation because of elections. A more systematic and numerical tracking of report submissions would have been needed to more accurately report against this indicator. |

Output 1.1

High-quality projects for PBF funding developed jointly by the UN, government and civil society counterparts

Output 1.2

Strengthened efficiency, management structure and strategic position for the PBF portfolio in Somalia

Output 1.3

Develop M&E systems, particularly a Portfolio level M&E results framework, to better position the PBF Secretariat to monitor progress of Projects results, provide enhanced support to M&E project teams and also help with overall strategic planning, decision-making, and learning for the benefit of the PBF portfolio and the wider peacebuilding work in Somalia

| 1.1.1 | The UN in Somalia and government counterparts jointly develop proposals and have them endorsed by the SDRF steering committee | 7 projects | 25 projects | N/A | Since 2018, when this PBF Secretariat project started, 18 projects were approved over a total amount of USD 42,084,750. Additionally, two projects over a total of USD 2.6Million were approved by PBSO in 2022 and started implementation in 2023. The PBF Secretariat follow-on Project over USD 2 was also approved in 2023 before the end of this Secretariat Project. In total, at least 21projects were approved by the end of the project. Aggregating the 7 projects indicated in the indicator baseline and the 21 projects approved during this Secretariat project, would mean that the target of 25 has been exceeded by three (7+21= 28 projects). | The SDRF steering committee was not functional during the electoral period and the COVID-19 pandemic. Projects were approved based on endorsement by respective line ministries and UN leadership. However, discussions with MoIFAR have been successful about establishing a PBF steering mechanism as part of implementing the follow-on PBF Secretariat Project (aligned with the emerging new aid architecture of the new Government). |

| 1.1.2 | Strengthened partnership with civil society in the implementation of PBF-funded projects | Zero NGO-led PBF projects | Two NGO-led PBF projects | N/A | 4 CSOs were or are recipients of PBF funds, supported by this project (Life and Peace Institute, Saferworld, International Rescue Committee, ACTED). The IRC project was the first NGO-led PBF project globally that was funded from the portfolio budget of an eligible PBF country. The other NGOs received funding from the GYPI. The Secretariat also engaged with CSOs intensively when making the request for PBF eligibility. The Secretariat participated actively in the GPPAC policy event in New York on financing for youth-led peacebuilding. | |

1.1.3	Somalia secures renewed PBF eligibility based on a portfolio evaluation and articulation of new peacebuilding priorities based on a sound conflict analysis	N/A	Renewed PBF eligibility and agreement on a conflict analysis to guide peacebuilding programming	N/A	The SG approved a 5-year eligibility renewal for Somalia in July 2020, focusing on national reconciliation, rule of law, democratic governance, security sector reform with strong overall emphasis on Women, Peace and Security. This was the result of virtual consultations reaching approximately 400 people in the general public and more than 70 key stakeholders from government, civil society and the international community. A conflict analysis and portfolio review were conducted.

| 1.2.3 | Increased use of virtual decision-making procedures | N/A | Used by all project teams | N/A | The majority of meetings and workshops organized by the Secretariat in 2021 and 2022 have been virtual because of the COVID-19 pandemic. | 1.3.1 | Development of Portfolio M&E results framework | No framework | Framework developed | N/A | A guidance note, suggesting key topics and processes to be considered when developing the Strategic Results Framework (SRF), was drafted by the Secretariat in consultation with the Integrated Office. Nevertheless, the process did not commence because of the need to develop a partnership with a PBF government counterpart from the incoming government and to establish a PBF steering mechanism (see further details in the next column). The National Stabilization Strategy, currently being updated by MoIFAR for newly recovered and fragile districts includes a strong focus on reconciliation that itself | Because of delayed elections, that were successfully concluded only inmid-2022, and the need for the new Government to subsequently define its priorities and appoint key positions, a meaningful engagement with Government was only possible in quarter 4 of 2022.Since the end of last year, the PBF Secretariat team has established a partnership with the new leadership of MoIFAR to discuss the PBF Secretariat project, the SRF process and the PBF steering mechanism. Both, the active leadership of the new MoIFAR and establishment of a PBF steering mechanism, are prerequisites for the |

This was due to the fact that the COVID pandemic and the increasing insecurity and access constraints very much restricted physical monitoring and verification. As part of the new PBF Secretariat project, it is envisaged to recruit a NOC position for M&E and learning, and to explore possibilities of contracting third party monitoring agencies with sufficient access in partnership with the Somalia Joint Fund/ MPTF) to improve monitoring and verification by the Secretariat (to complement M&E efforts of recipient agencies).

One of the projects that this Secretariat Project supported in terms of project development and securing funding (including from other donors) is the Joint Programme on Women, Peace and Protection (WPP) that promotes women's participation in peacebuilding, particularly in decision-making and leadership, and sustaining peace at national and community level by engaging and capacitating women. Capacities of FGS and FMS women affairs ministries and women-led CSOs are built on issues such as the Women, Peace and Security (WPS) agenda and the localization of the National Action Plan (NAP) on WPS. It also supported the establishment of Women Peace Networks and Women Resource Centres. Related to this intervention, an achievement was documented by the Ministry of Women and Human Rights Development (MoWHRD), the main counterpart for WPP, that is captured as an impact achieved under below:

Shamsa Ahmed has always known on and off conflict between her clan (Wagardhac) and their neighbours (Saleban) in Dhabad district in Galmudug. She grew up in Laba Gole village, a conflict fault line. Girls would move together in large numbers to fetch water and graze goats to mitigate against the threat of sexual violence. The current drought has heightened tensions over water points, and when fighting erupted between the two clans in August, Shamsa knew the women had to quickly organize for peace. She mobilized the women in her village to meet with the elders and community men to push for an immediate ceasefire, peace talks, and organize care for the injured. They also called a press conference asking for government intervention in the conflict. The women hosted a meeting in Dhabad for their clan, where discussions were held, and agreement reached to participate in the government talks in Dhusamareeb. Ten women accompanied the men. They were hosted by members of the women peace network, and the women resource center in Dhusamareeb provided the venue for one of the confidence building side talks that brought the warring clans to the table. The women continued to echo the message on the cease fi re and reaching of peaceful settlement and ensured that the men stayed the course in the talks. The women left Dhusamareeb before the main talks, but the role and contribution they played in creating the ground and space for the agreement reached in late September cannot be overstated.

With assistance and background support from the PBF Secretariat, the United Nations Peacebuilding Commission met on 2nd December 2020 to discuss Somalia for the first time since 2015 and explore how the international community can support its peacebuilding priorities and jointly find solutions to some of the challenges to peace it faces.(https://reliefweb.int/report/somalia/press-statement-peacebuilding-commission-peacebuilding-somalia-4-december-2020)

Extract from Press Statement of the Peacebuilding Commission on peacebuilding in Somalia (4 December 2020): "The Commission welcomed the support provided by the Peacebuilding Fund (PBF) to Somalia's peacebuilding priorities, including reconciliation, justice and rule of law, security and governance, and human rights. The Commission encouraged partners to consider providing additional resources to ensure sustainability of collective and inclusive peacebuilding eff orts, and noted the contribution of civil society in this regard."

PART IV: Monitoring, Evaluation and Compliance

» Monitoring

Please list key monitoring activities undertaken in the reporting period *

Please limit your response to 3000 characters.

Plans for monitoring missions have been put on hold due to the pandemic and restrictions on movement in Somalia. The Secretariat has therefore organized online meetings with projects to seek updates on implementation progress and challenges. Project-level Steering Committees with Government counterparts continued taking place (mostly online) but were less frequent during the electoral period and COVID-19 pandemic.

The indicator relating to the "continued growth of PBF portfolio in Somalia" has been tracked over time since the beginning of this project. A more systematic and numerical tracking of report submissions would have been needed to more accurately report against the indicator relating to timely reporting. The efforts of the IOM and UNICEF joint programme funded by PBF helped strengthening community-based reintegration. Instead of providing reintegration services for young people formerly associated with al-Shabaab in a Centre outside of communities, this new approach focused on supporting their reintegration within communities.
As a result of this innovation, a growing level of confidence in community-based reintegration was illustrated by a 61 per cent increase (as of August 2023) in the number of children formerly associated with al-Shabaab handed over by the authorities to partners for community reintegration compared with 2022.

Sustainability

Does the project have an explicit exit strategy?

Please describe any steps that have been taken to ensure the sustainability of peacebuilding gains, including any mechanisms, platforms, networks and socio-economic initiatives supported, beyond the duration of the project *
