Qualitative assessment of progress

For each intended outcome, provide evidence of progress during the reporting period.

In addition, for each outcome include the outputs achieved. (1000 characters max per outcome.)

Outcome 1:

Significant progress on joint decisions and actions of the two governments on the key provisions of the BPA, namely the autonomy arrangements, referendum preparations and weapons disposal have been made. Although the JSB was deferred to after the 2017 PNG National Elections, an informal Joint Technical Meeting was held in POM in April to support a private meeting between the President of Bougainville and the Prime Minister of PNG. Emanating from this private meeting, was approval and endorsement of the Bougainville Referendum Commission to conduct the referendum. The Solicitor General subsequently endorsed the Referendum Charter now ready for the Governor General's signature. Referendum Arrangements have been gazzetted as required by law. An overarching MOU on draw-down of powers was also signed between the two governments earlier in the year to support transfer of powers to ABG. Implementation of the Weapons Disposal Plan will also commence in July 2017.

Outcome 2:

Significant progress in this outcome were also seen in this period. A motion passed in 2016 for a Constituency Referendum Ready Process reinforced UNDP peacebuilding capacity support including continuing ICT trainings, Referendum Awareness inductions, and M&E to the BHOR Parliamentarians. These have contributed significantly to them being able to champion awareness raising on the referendum and BPA in their constituencies. Phase 1 of this process was supported by UNDP and significantly bolstered public confidence in the BPA provisions from 17% to 54% in just 6 months. Concluding the Phase 1, the national and ABG parliamentary committees met in POM and Arawa to agree on tabling a report in the national parliament in support of the Bougainville referendum preparations. The BHOR still continues to discharge its functions diligently as exemplified by about 59% of the Bougainville public having confidence in the BHOR's capacity and willingness to engage with them on key issues.

Outcome 3:

| | Outcome 4: |
|---|--|
| Do you see evidence that the project is having a positive impact on peacebuilding? (1000 characters max.) | The project is indeed making an impact on peacebuilding in Bougainville and PNG. Despite the fact that it deals with political sensitivities related to state sovereignty, the UN's comparative advantage in this area has made possible continuous dialogue between both governments, which has resulted in the national government's endorsement of the Charter that will establish the Bougainville Referendum Commission (BRC). The joint review of the autonomy arrangements though significantly delayed, has veered back on track and both governments still continue to demonstrate substantial commitment to raise referendum awareness and to rid Bougainville of weapons ahead of the Referendum. Community Based Monitoring findings reveal that around 54% of Bougainvilleans are now more informed of the Bougainville Peace Agremeement and its provisions and these have increased their level of confidence in the region's peace process. |
| Were there catalytic effects from the project in the period reported, including additional funding commitments or unleashing/unblocking of any peace relevant processes? (1000 characters max.) | The catalytic effects spurred by this project includes the signing of the Roreinang Declaration of unification by former fighters of the BRA, Meekamui, Twin Kingdom and BRF in Arawa on 17 May this year. The project also strengthened its partnership within the UN system and both the national and ABG Parliaments and made possible the visit of the national Bipartisan Parliamentary Committee to Bougainville early this year, for preparation of a report to be presented to the national parliament on Bougainville for the first time in five years. Unfortunately, this did not materialise due to other political exigencies. UN/ BHOR partnership saw BHOR commit about $7,000 towards establishment of a BHOR ICT Resource Centre, to provide parliamentarians a contemporary facility, to upscale their engagement with their constituencies. The UN referendum support project for PNG is an offshoot of work being done by this project. |
| If progress has been slow or inadequate, provide main reasons and what is being done to address them. (1000 characters max.) | This project has not progressed as fast as would have been expected, understandably so because it is political and a lot of decisions have to be made at the top echelons of both governments. The decision making Joint Supervisory Body (JSB) meetings have not been held regularly due to competing priorities of both governments, and technical capacity issues on the part of the ABG and NCOBA in convening meetings including follow ups. This is going to be resolved through strengthening the capacity of the ABG Chief Secretary's office to deal with high level political decision making meetings, augmented by effective and consistent PDA/UNDP liaison with the Department of PM and NEC. The Second Autonomy Review is also significantly delayed although highly prioritised by UNDP. The delay is to do with interpretation issues on whether or not there should be a constitutional |

| | review of the Bougainville Constitution before the review. Decision will be made by the Joint PBF TC |
|---|--|
| | in Buka this June. |
| What are the main activities/expected results for the rest of the year? (1000 characters max.) | Planned activities for the next six months will include support to the 2nd Phase of the BHOR Referendum Ready Process, funding Referendum Parliamentary Committee consultations in and out of Bougainville, and bulding the capacity of the newly established BHOR parliamentary committee on Gender. Selected parliamentary committees will undertake learning exchanges with relevant neighbouring countries on autonomy arrangements and referendum. In addition, UNDP will come up with innovative strategies to progress the Second Autonomy Review. These will be discussed at the upcoming PBF Joint Technical Committee meeting planed for June this year. The ABG Chief Secretary's office will be strengthened to convene and follow up on high level meetings, including the JTT and JSB. Nomination of Commissioners to the BRC will be done during this period and a Weapons Disposal Consultant deployed to Bougainville. Women's unifiaction will be prioritised and aspiration is to have one JSB before end 2017. |
| Is there any need to adjust project strategies/duration/budget etc.? (1000 characters max.) | Yes there is need to adjust project duration for many reasons without necessarily requesting an additional budget. Firstly, the Peacebuilding Priority Plan (PPP) for PNG was signed in 2014, but funds only released a year later in August 2015. This significantly affected project start up. Secondly, this project is politically sensitive dealing with state sovereignty, hence the national government actually determines the rate of progress through its decision making processes. This has also had significant effects on timelines for implementation. Cognisant of this, UNDP's innovation of alternative implementation approaches has included a Letter of Agreement with the ABG to deal with the soft part of referendum and BPA awareness, whilst it continues to strategically engage with the two governments politically including their parliaments. This will chart out a new direction and UNDP will continue to provide strategic guidance and rigorous monitoring throughout the LOA's implementation . |
| What is the project budget expenditure to date (percentage of allocated project budget expensed by the date of the report) – preliminary figures only? (1000 characters max.) | Overall the % of delivery in comparision with expenditure over allocated budget for 3 years stands at 68.4%. In contrast to this, the delivery rate per annual budget allocation is 43.1% according to the UNDP annual work plan (AWP) 2017. Clearly this is an indication that despite the slow start of implementation, catalytic interventions based on sound political analysis and consistent monitoring has contributed positively in changing the project's outputs and outcomes over the past 5 months. The new approach of UNDP supporting Phase 2 of the BHOR Constituency Referendum Ready Process (CRRP) and strengthening the Constituency Referendum Committees establised by the ABG through a Letter of Agreement (LOA) will not only promote ownership of referendum preparation processes |

| but will also increase project delivery rate to about 75%. The level of commitment of the two governments is improving steadily as demostrated by their joint attendance of meetings and joint decision making. Any other information that the project needs to convey to PBSO (and JSC) at this stage? (1500 characters max.) UNDP continues to partner with the ABG BHOR to support the second phase of the Parliamentary Constituency Referendum Ready Process. This technically means providing resources in the form of funding, equipment and materials to all the 39 Parliamentarians to disseminate important joint messages and decisions on the BPA and referendum to their electorates well ahead of the referendum. This activity will be cross cutting and impacting on Outcome 1 and 2 Political dialouge and knowledge building respectively. The Parliamentarians will also be engaged in a number of learning exchange programs around autonomy and referendum, to inform them about similar experiences and best practice models globally. Additionally, signing of the Bougainville Referendum Commission with appropriate | | |
